Sports Competitions

1. Sports competitions during Euro festival

Among the demonstrations and contests organized within the Eurofestival appear sports competitions between teams of the participating cities. These sport events are presented in the form of true competitions, inciting the young people to put their talent at the profit of their delegation. The fact of presenting in each of the five sports appearing in the program a mixed team of boys and girls, men and women, gives a character specific to the tournaments. The friendly character and the prevalence of the entertainment rather than the aggressiveness to win create an unforgettable experiment among the participants.

2. Rules for the Sports Competitions.

The Rules for the various sports are given again in chapter 3. Competitions

2.1. The mixed team peculiarity of Sports

All the sporting competitions of the Eurofestival are played by mixed teams (men and women). The minimum of female players present on the play-ground, respectively in the teams is given again in the chapter « Participation » of each sport.

A female player dropping out because of an injury or any other reason, can only be replaced by another female player. In case a team has only one female player, the team must play in with one player less.

2.2. Judges and Referees

The judges and referees in the various competitions are designated by the organizer. They are in general national referees or/and experienced competitors.

2.3 Jury of appeal

The jury of appeal decides in disagreements which can't be decided by the judges and referees on the spot. To be admissible, the appeal must be formulated in writing.

The composition of the jury of appeal for all the sports is:

- four members of the sporting cell of the organizer and
- one person on responsible for the teams concerned with the appeal.

2.4. Attribution of points and classification

In each sport there will a classification of the teams according to the disputed matches. The first team 12 points, the second 11 and so on. A team not taking part in the competition or dropping out will be allotted 0 point.

The classification of the teams eliminated after the qualification matches will be done:

- 1° according to the score in direct confrontation
- 2° according to the score of the disputed matches.

If it come not to a decision between teams, the teams with equality will shares the points to be allotted.
